Dear Ms. Kathleen Claussen,

I am waiting for the update about the errors in metadata, author 1 not available in article web, and missing DOI number in Pdf File.

If impossible to get them updated, at least, there is a statement from the editor about the case. So, I have something to say to the research team management.

Thanks

Dear Ms. Kathleen Claussen,

SOS. Please help update the error of metadata. Name of Author 1, Dyah Listyarini has not appeared on the journal article website (although it appears in the PDF version). Please update. The link will be posted in our research report. Also, the PDF file has no DOI link. Please update.

Please send me the updated link to the article.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely yours,

Sugeng Purwanto

My name is Kathleen Claussen and I am the Editor-in-Chief of the Journal of International Economic Law at Oxford University Press. On behalf of our Editorial Board, I would like to congratulate you and formally extend an offer to publish your article, Law Enforcement On Non-Smoking Zones: Prospects And Challenges In Search Of Human Rights Equilibrium. The Editorial Board reviewed your article and we were impressed by the novelty of the argument, quality of writing, and depth of research. We believe it would be an ideal fit for publication in our journal.

For context, The Journal of International Economic Law is dedicated to encouraging thoughtful and scholarly attention to a very broad range of subjects that concern the relation of law to international economic activity, by providing the major English language medium for publication of high-quality manuscripts relevant to the endeavours of scholars, government officials, legal professionals, and others.

Your research paper is accepted to be published on February 18, 2023 (Volume 25, Issue 4).

Best Regards,

Kathleen Claussen.
